THE FINEST CUISINE AT SEA

While every aspect of the Oceania Cruises experience is a study in gracious understatement, our passion for serving the finest cuisine at sea is anything but. We wouldn't make such an immodest assertion if not for the culinary artistry of the legendary Master Chef Jacques Pépin. As our Executive Culinary Director, Chef Pépin inspires our culinary team to perform feats of gastronomic wizardry. Memorable dining begins with open seating, as it allows you to dine when you are ready and with whomever you choose. Regardless of which of our restaurants you select, there are no additional dining charges.

RESTAURANTS

Grand Dining Room | Continental cuisine, savory Canyon Ranch® selections and Jacques Pépin's signature dishes are served in an elegant ambiance inspired by Europe's five-star hotel restaurants.

Polo Grill | With all the elements of a classic steakhouse, from filet mignon to New York strip, Polo Grill also has equally appealing options for seafood lovers, such as whole Maine lobster.

Toscana | Enjoy family recipes handed down through generations. Presented on elegant Versace china, each dish is a masterpiece that exemplifies the essence of Tuscany.

Red Ginger | Red Ginger's chefs have created contemporary interpretations of Asian classics. The culinary pleasures will delight your palate while the striking decor provides a feast for the eyes.*

Jacques | Luscious aromas waft from the gleaming rotisserie, where chicken, duck, pork, rib and veal roasts slowly turn. Each dish is a classic, ingeniously interpreted by Master Chef Pépin.†

Terrace Café | Dine indoors or alfresco as the menu of international dishes changes daily. Savor grilled lobster tails, jumbo shrimp, hand-cut steaks and chops, a sushi bar and fresh pastas.

Waves Grill | Chefs grill gourmet burgers and succulent seafood to order, with sides including fresh salads and hand-cut truffle fries dusted with grated aged parmesan. For dessert try a creamy homemade gelato or a thick hand-dipped milkshake.

Horizons | Teatime is a daily event at four o'clock in the afternoon. With a classical string quartet softly playing, four-tiered carts elegantly display finger sandwiches, petits fours, scones, exquisite desserts and a selection of artisanal teas.

EDEN, AUSTRALIA

Formerly a whaling hub in the 19th century, Eden is the southernmost town in New South Wales, nestled between two glorious bays and perched on rolling hills bounded by dramatic cliffs and expansive sandy beaches. Eden’s whaling legacy lives on in its exciting whale-watching opportunities and the fascinating Killer Whale Museum. At the Sapphire Coast Marine Discovery Centre, towering lighthouses and the scenic coastline keep the focus firmly on the ever-changing sea.

GISBORNE, NEW ZEALAND

Named in honor of the crew member on Captain James Cook’s ship Endeavour who first sighted land in the area in 1769, this thriving seaside community is wedded to the sea and its vibrant Maori heritage and culture. Often called the “Chardonnay Capital of New Zealand,” Gisborne has a splendid array of boutique wineries. For a taste of Gisborne’s history and art, the Tairāwhiti Museum is an essential destination in this city of warm smiles and even warmer hearts.

Marina | Feb 23, 2016 | Tasman Treasures | Page 41

JAMESTOWN, SAINT HELENA

One of the most isolated islands in the world, Saint Helena was uninhabited when it was discovered by the Portuguese in the 16th century, at which point it became an important stopover in the Age of Discovery. Visit the tomb where the exiled Napoleon was buried upon his death in 1821. The Plantation House, one of the most impressive buildings on the island, is the home of the governor as well as what is believed to be the world’s oldest living animal, a tortoise around 180 years old.

Marina | Nov 28, 2015 | Southern Seas | Page 72

JEJU, SOUTH KOREA

Known as the “Island of the Gods,” Jeju offers beautiful beaches as well as breathtaking views from Hallasan, the highest peak in South Korea. The volcanic island features one of the finest lava tube systems of caves in the world and has been named a UNESCO World Heritage Site for its dramatic landscapes of outstanding beauty. Walk the scenic path to the Cheonjiyeon Waterfall, one of the island’s most famous attractions, and watch history and culture come alive at the open-air Jeju Folk Village Museum.

LUDERITZ, NAMIBIA

Founded in 1883 by a wealthy German merchant of the same name, Luderitz offers colorful colonial architecture along the beautiful Atlantic coastline. Explore the region’s past on a tour of Kolmanskop, a ghost town that was once a bustling center of the diamond trade. The recently restored waterfront offers lovely art nouveau architecture, and the coastal waters are home to penguins, dolphins, sharks and seals.

Insignia | Jan 14, 2016 | Atlantic Ocean Exploration | Page 73

NEWCASTLE, AUSTRALIA

This welcoming beachside city boasts an intriguing maritime history along with beautiful coastline and diverse natural landscapes ranging from lush rainforests to preserved wetlands to coastal sand dunes. In addition to its celebrated beaches, the city’s unique ocean baths are among the largest in the Southern Hemisphere. Insignia | Apr 3, 2016 | Far East Traveler | Page 60

NORFOLK ISLAND, AUSTRALIA

Admire the natural beauty of the parks and reserves, and relax on the peaceful crescent-shaped beach of Emily’s Bay. For a historical perspective, visit the monument to Captain Cook, overlooking the place where Cook is said to have landed on the island, and learn about the island’s former penal colony on a tour of Old Kingston Town.

Marina | Feb 4, 2016 | South Pacific Serenity | Page 40

RAROIA, FRENCH POLYNESIA

The few locals on the isolated, palm-fringed island of Raroia typically spend their days farming pearls, cultivating coconuts or welcoming visitors eager to explore this Polynesian paradise. As the site where Thor Heyerdahl’s Kon-Tiki expedition landed after sailing a raft from Peru, Raroia is the best known of the atolls in the Tuamotu Islands and yet still maintains its pristine beauty. Snorkel in the crystal clear waters of the central lagoon, or simply relax on the idyllic white sand beaches.

SHIMIZU, JAPAN

In the shadow of Mount Fuji, Shimizu is one of the most beautiful ports in Japan. Walk through the pine groves of Miho, home to a 650-year-old Japanese black pine, or enjoy spectacular views of Mount Fuji from the lush, forested hill of Nihondaira. Take in the seascapes on a bay cruise, or learn of undersea delights at Japan’s first sushi museum. For a historic angle, get a glimpse at feudal life in Japan in 200 BC at the archaeological site of Toro.

Nautica | Mar 4, 2016 | Dynasties & Empires | Page 57

The Baths National Park, available from Tortola, is a geological wonder comprised of granite boulders which form sea pools on the water's edge

Caribbean & Panama Canal

SHADES OF PERFECTION

The powdery white sands of Antigua are a canvas upon which the Caribbean paints vivid shades of turquoise, and the radiant green hills of St. Barts set against deep sapphire seas appear to have been created by a master artist. In every color of the rainbow, tropical fish decorate the coral reef off the coast of Roatan, and the colorful urban landscape of Oranjestad seems to take its inspiration from the elegant flamingos and the vocal parakeets. A work of art in itself, the Panama Canal will astound you, as will the graceful symmetry of the ancient Mayan temples of the Western Caribbean. On these unforgettable voyages, you can enjoy paradise in every shade of perfect.

ISLAND TIME

As you approach the isles of the South Pacific, put away your watch, breathe in the fresh sea air and surrender to island time, because this magical place has a mindset all its own. Coral atolls, lush forests, lingering sunsets and vibrant marine life are just a few of the things you will experience on heavenly French Polynesian islands such as Tahiti and Bora Bora. Equally relaxed and friendly, Australia and New Zealand offer everything from soaring mountain ranges to magnificent urban landscapes and from Aboriginal culture to cuddly koala bears. Winter is the perfect time to escape to the Southern Hemisphere, where time passes as effortlessly as the gentle waters lapping at the sandy shores.

BEYOND THE IMAGINATION

A voyage to the shores of Africa or Asia will leave you amazed, delighted and even transformed by the diverse array of natural wonders and exotic cultures unlike anything you have ever encountered. Hluhluwe Game Reserve outside Richards Bay is one of the few places to see the rare white rhino, and in the Grand Palace of Bangkok, you can catch a glimpse of the revered Emerald Buddha. In Myanmar, formerly Burma, feast your eyes on temples such as the gilded Shwedagon Pagoda in a country once inaccessible to foreign visitors. From the unbounded energy of Seoul to the peaceful retreats of the Maldives, this is your opportunity to step out of the daily routines of life and open your heart to experiences beyond anything you could have imagined.

WINELANDS & WILDLIFE

Explore the bustling harbor city of Cape Town before or after taking a journey to the famous Cape Winelands, set below the dramatic mountain range Hottentots Holland. Tour the Winelands, home of some of the world's finest wines and Stellenbosch, the second oldest town in South Africa. During your visit to an estate, you will have lunch and enjoy a wine tasting. The following day will be an extraordinary wildlife experience on a hosted game drive through one of Africa's pristine wildlife reserves, where you will see some of Africa's most iconic animals, including the Big Five in their natural habitat.
